

27 February 1954

The Honorable Richard M. Nixon/
The Vice-President of the United States
Washington, D. C.

Dear Dick:

My friend, Neil Mallon of Dallas, Texas, has sent me a copy of his letter to you of February 24, 1954 with regard to the Dallas Council on World Affairs.

Knowing the calls upon you, I cannot conscientiously urge you to take on another speaking engagement, but if by chance you should be thinking of making a speech in that part of the country, the Dallas Council on World Affairs affords an excellent forum of persons who take a deep interest in our foreign relations.

Neil Mallon, whom I have known for several years, has achieved a real accomplishment in organizing the Council and keeping it a live and vigorous organization.

Respectfully yours,
